

World Forest Day 2021 Storytelling and Reading Contest Terms and Conditions

The Contest aims to raise awareness of the importance of all types of forests. Children are encouraged to learn about forests through reading and storytelling.

Participants

Anyone residing in Malaysia aged 5 to 12 years old is eligible to join the Contest except for WWF-Malaysia staff and their families, with no limit on the number of entries per person.

Participants to the Contest are asked to send a one-minute video of them reading or telling stories about forests by completing the Subject Release Form.

Participants must submit to the Contest original works for which they are the sole creator and own the copyright. The video submitted must contain only capture the image of the Participant. WWF-Malaysia will not be responsible for any claim or complaints alleging violation of the rights of third parties.

By entering the Contest, the Participant indicates that he is the sole copyright owner of the material and that this material does not infringe upon any other third party's rights. The Participant agrees to grant an irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive license to WWF-Malaysia to reproduce, distribute, display, share and create derivative works of the entries connected with the Contest and the promotion of WWF-Malaysia's work.

The entries may be used for: • Display on WWF-Malaysia website and social media channels to promote the Contest or the work of WWF-Malaysia.

WWF-Malaysia will not pay any fees for, nor bear any costs relating to, the entry of the video(s) into the Contest or for their use as described above. Where possible and to the extent feasible, WWF-Malaysia will credit the videos as follows when publishing: ©First and last name of entrant / WWF-Malaysia

WWF-Malaysia reserves the right to verify any entry and/or Participant (including a Participant's identity and address) and disqualify any Participant who submits an entry that is not following these rules or who tampers with the entry process.

WWF-Malaysia reserves the right to modify or cancel the Contest or any of the arrangements, schedules, plans or other items directly or indirectly related to the Contest, at any time and for any reason it deems necessary.

PROCESS AND SELECTION CRITERIA

The Contest opens at 12:00 PM 21 March 2021 and closes at 11:59 PM 27 March 2021. Entries received after the deadline will not be considered.

The winner of each age category will be notified by email using the contact details provided with the entry. If any of the selected winners are ineligible, cannot be traced or does not respond within three days to a winner notification as required by the Contest Rules above, or refuses the prize, the prize will be forfeited, and it will be in the sole discretion of the WWF-Malaysia Jury to choose whether to award the prize to another eligible entry.

The jury's decision is final. Any attempt by a participant to influence the result or subvert the video contest will lead to immediate disqualification. The winners of the Contest will be publicly announced on 30 March 2021

Disclaimer: Participants are required to have the consent of their parent or legal custodian. The parent or legal custodian must sign the Subject Release Form and submit it before 27 March 2021 (11:59 PM).
